WHEELING'S CLAIM GOOD.

Howell Says his Claim Will Hold Good for Bammert, Meyers, Mazena and Woodcock—Gilligan Praises the two Southern Leaguers.

Wheeling readers of the Sporting News were in the dumps when they read last week's issue, for in President "Nick" Young's bulletin appeared, among the players who had signed Syracuse contracts, the names of two of Wheeling's reserved players, Second baseman Mazena and Short-stop Woodcock. On the face of the returns this was bad enough, and a bad matter was made worse by a perusal of the Shreveport letter, in which it was claimed Short-stop Bammert and First-baseman Meyers would play with that city's team in the Southern League. To the nervous fan it appeared that four of the men destined for Wheeling's infield were about to slip away, so one was excusable if he indulged in lamentations loud and deep.

However, President Howell, of the Wheelings, did not share in this nervousness, and an examination of his confidence in Bammert, Meyers, Woodcock and Mazena would all be found with Wheeling. He stated Sunday evening that he had written to "Nick" Young and was sure Wheeling's claim for all of these players was so strong he could not possibly decide against this city. Mazena and Woodcock were regularly reserved by Springfield and were acquired by Wheeling in the transfer of the franchise and team. Whistler, while managing Springfield, it is asserted, gave Mazena and Woodcock releases from reservation, but as this was done without the knowledge or authority of the president and directors of the club, all base ball law and precedent, it is believed, will be against the claim that Whistler's act as manager of Springfield, done most likely for his own particular benefit, is sufficient to sign the two players for Syracuse without regard to the wishes of the Wheeling club to which the players rightfully belong. A decision against Wheeling in this contention would set aside all equity, and it is not believed the board of arbitration would allow Whistler to perpetrate such a vile and unjustifiable hold-up for it can be given no other name.

As to Bammert and Meyers, Wheeling's claim is equally good. These two Southern leaguers wired to Wheeling acceptance of terms offered, on March 2, before the Southern league was even organized. There isn't room for even the particle of a doubt here.

Reddy Gilligan, the Wheeling ball tosser, who has signed to play with Austin, of the Texas league, says Bammert, led the Southern league short-stops last season and was in batting, so it can be seen he will likely beat Woodcock out in the race for the honor of playing at short-field in the Wheeling nine. A tip to Whistler—if he wants Woodcock so earnestly, he might buy the player's release from Wheeling, but only after it is determined that Bammert is the better man of the two. As to Meyers, Gilligan says he was easily the fastest first baseman in the Southern last year, and is a very good batsman. He predicts both Bammert and Meyers will be stars of the first magnitude in the Inter-state.

WANTED—To learn of an Inter-state league team that has not an iron-bound copper-riveted chain on this year's pennant—Fort Wayne news.

ANSWER—Fort Wayne, New Castle, Grand Rapids, Mansfield, Youngstown, and Wheeling. Please pass the prize.—Toledo Bee.

ADDENDA—Toledo and Dayton may have a chance, but the eastern circuit has four clubs, Wheeling, New Castle, Youngstown and Mansfield, that are as likely candidates for the pennant as either of the two western teams.

In speaking of the players he expects to see wear Fort Wayne uniforms, Manager Jack Glascock mentions those already signed, printed in the Gazette a week ago, and says that he is after several others, whom, if he is able to sign, will give the team a championship appearance.

In the committee, he says: "If nothing happens, and we get what we are after, we will be in the race good and strong, and any club that beats us will know there has been a game. My plans are to try and give Fort Wayne a club that the city will not be ashamed of, on or off the field."

In speaking of the team, he tells the Hoosier state to play, he writes:

"I have had three years of the people of Indiana, and am proud to say that there are no better."

Mr. Maunter and Secretary Hubbard returned from Mansfield very favorably impressed with Captain Glascock, and have concluded that he will be a great favorite in this city. Mr. Glascock is a gentleman, in every sense of the word, and one of the most impressive and best ball players that ever donned a uniform.—Fort Wayne Gazette.

BOWLING.

It is a most remarkable race for the individual championship now being waged in the Wheeling bowling league by the three Wheeling club cracks, Brown, Stevenson and Campbell. Until a few weeks ago Stevenson had held the lead undisputed from the beginning of the season; then Brown caught up after running a close second—a long time, and now Harry Campbell, who is just now playing a phenomenal game, comes up and the three are well the average of each player being 165. The season is now nearing its close, and interest in the outcome of the race has centered upon the individual championship, the standing of the ten teams with one or two exceptions being already settled. If Campbell continues in his form of the past four weeks he will give Brown and Stevenson more than they can conveniently attend to. The averages up to date are as follows, having been compiled by Secretary Fette:

RESTFUL SUNDAY

For the President—He Starts for Washington To-day.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., March 26.—President McKinley spent a quiet and restful Sunday, attending to no business save a few arrangements for the return trip to Washington to-morrow and listening to what Postmaster General Emory Smith had to say of his observations of conditions in Cuba. The weather was very warm, the thermometer registering 85 degrees, but a breeze was blowing.

The President and Miss Hanna were driven to the Methodist church for the noon service. Mr. McKinley wore a light weight black coat and a soft straw hat. The church was filled, and the President on coming out smilingly returned the salutation of many of the congregation. In the early afternoon, he, with other members of the household, went driving and later received Postmaster General Smith, who reached here on a special car from Tampa and will journey north with the President to-morrow. He was driven direct from the station to Senator Hanna's home, stopping long enough to say to an Associated Press reporter that his views on Cuban affairs had been fully stated in an interview sent by the Associated Press before he left Havana.

The presidential party will leave here late to-morrow afternoon and reach Washington after the close of office hours Tuesday. Vice President Hobart has decided to go north with the President. He has not been feeling as well the last three or four days as during the early part of his visit and believes a cooler and more bracing climate will prove beneficial. His attack of grip last winter was very severe and it will take time and the best of care to rid his system of its effects. He caught a fresh cold Wednesday night and this, with some stomach trouble, made it necessary for him to keep quiet and observe the doctor's directions. He has been able to move about the house, however, and this afternoon was feeling slightly better.

MINING SCALE

Of the Kanawha Region—Meeting of Operators and Miners.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 26.—The scale committee of the Kanawha coal operators and miners met here yesterday and arranged a scale of prices for mining coal for the ensuing six months. The new scale does not differ materially from the old one, except that it provides for pay day on the Saturday after the 15th of the month instead of on the Saturday after the 20th, as at present. Under the agreement the miners are to be paid on a sliding scale, the minimum price to be 25 cents a bushel for hard coal and 35 cents a ton for soft coal, with an addition of 25 percent on advances in the market, the market price being fixed at 4 1/2 cents a bushel for hard coal. This is practically the arrangement that has been in effect since last October, when the scale was first agreed upon.

The miners' committee asked for an increase, which, because of the condition of the market, they did not receive; but as a concession they received a reduction of fifty cents monthly on house rents.

The regular monthly meeting of the Chesapeake & Ohio Fuel Company was also held here yesterday.

Delay in State Printing.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 26.—There has been considerable comment on the delay in getting out the printed copies of the acts of the recent legislature. Chief Clerk W. E. R. Byrne, of the house, who has this work in charge, states, in explanation, that the copy has been in the hands of the public printer since March 15, but that the latter has not kept up with the work because, he claims, he has not been furnished with stationery.

Chief Clerk Byrne stated that it was his intention to have the printed copies of the acts in distribution by April 1. Just when they will be out, it is impossible to say.

Governor's Appointments.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 26.—Governor Atkinson yesterday appointed Harry S. Borgs, of this city, commissioner of pharmacy, to succeed H. W. White, of Bluefield, and A. W. Werininger, of Huntington, a member of the board of directors of the asylum for incurables, at Huntington, to succeed John W. Harris, of Lewisburg, resigned.

Village Almost Wiped Out.

CORNING, N. Y., March 26.—Harrison Valley, Pa., lost almost half its entire portion by fire this morning.

The Harrison Valley house and two other buildings were burned to the ground and the remaining hotel and store stores were only saved by the tipping a barber shop over into the creek. The village has no protection from fire, and the departments from Knoxville and Westfield came on a special train to help them. The loss is $40,000, with much less insurance.

IN thirty years' experience in the practice of medicine, I have never given my name in support of a proprietary remedy; for I have never seen one that performed all and more than was claimed for it, unless it was "Hymene," which I endorse with all my heart (professional ethics to the contrary notwithstanding), for I believe it a duty I owe to humanity. Rev. J. N. Wiseman, who has been pastor of the Christian church for the past year, ended his labors with that congregation with the services held yesterday. Rev. Wiseman has been slightly indisposed for some time past, which, combined with friction which has been known to exist in the congregation, are said to be the reasons for his resignation.

No name for city solicitor was handed in to the Republican central committee Saturday, and the Republican ticket will likely be blank as far as a candidate for that office is concerned, as there seems to be no Republicans who will allow their name to be placed upon the ticket. The fight now lies between two Democrats, George Cooke and W. B. Francis.

How Americans Get Ahead.

Philadelphia Inquirer: A contract to build a bridge across the Abasco river, in the Sudan, has been awarded to a Philadelphia firm by the British war office because the Philadelphians agreed to complete the job in seven weeks, whereas the English bridgebuilders from whom estimates had been invited could not promise to get the bridge in place in less than seven months. Not long ago English Midland Railway Company came here for locomotives and trucks. It wanted them in a hurry and couldn't get them at home until after a long delay. These things help to explain why our manufacturers are making such serious inroads upon the foreign market. They don't say a thing can't be done because it is out of their ordinary experience. They adapt themselves to the emergency and work overtime to fill an order. That's why they are so constantly getting there.

Chas. M. Jenkins, New Cumberland, W. Va. "Bronchial Asthma made my life miserable for five years, and although I doctored with two doctors and took every kind of patent medicine I received no relief until I consulted Drs. Byers and Tucker. Before treating with these specialists I took cold very easily, and a cold always brought on a spell. I would almost choke to death. I could not sleep on account of suffocative breathing. Since treated with Doctrs. Byers and Tucker I have not lost any sleep, my appetite is good, I can do a day's work without feeling the least bit worn out, and have gained ten pounds. I would advise every one who has taken their treatment."

HEROINES OF PEACE.

When we read stories of the terrible Spanish Inquisition of the olden times, it seems as if the tortures they depict were almost beyond the invention of the most depraved and fiendish mind; and yet here in our own enlightened land and in this Nineteenth Century of Civilization, thousands of tender women—our own sisters, mothers and wives—suffering from some unnatural weakness of the delicate organism of their sex, are daily undergoing an almost equally terrible, physical anguish and martyrdom.

It seemed as if there was an iron band around my head, and it was being twisted tighter and tighter all the time," a New York lady said in trying to describe her terrible sensations. "I could not walk across my room without suffering dread pain," said another lady, Mrs. May R. Jones, of 520 Madison Ave., Ypsilanti, Mich., in a letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. "I was troubled with female weakness. I had suffered for two years when I began taking your medicine but now after taking three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I am free from pain. I do all my housework and walk where I please—thanks to Dr. Pierce's medicine."

"It is the only medicine that relieved my terrible headaches," said Mrs. R. P. Monfort, of Lebanon, Warren Co., Ohio. "In very truth it is the only medicine ever invented that delicate and ailing women can positively rely upon to give them complete and permanent relief."

No other remedy was ever devised that so thoroughly rejuvenates the entire nervous system of women; healing and curing all weakened and diseased conditions of the feminine organism and restoring womanly strength and completeness. It is the only proprietary remedy ever devised for this one special purpose by an educated and eminent physician, a specialist of world-wide reputation in this particular field of practice. No woman need or ought to allow her whole nature, physical and mental, to be undermined by such ailments when by writing to Dr. Pierce she may obtain professional advice free of charge.
